

Teddy Bear Times

The EMELC Room 2 News Letter

Mister Ben: 696-8911 Absences/Preguntas en Español: 696-8909
Benjamin.Collinsworth@fwusd.org

For the week of February 18, 2019

Miss Aubrey (Special Education): 696-8912
Aubrey.Wilson@fwusd.org Transportation: 696-8870

News:

- Parents/guardians, the Flowing Wells Education Foundation presents to you the FESTIVAL UNDER THE STARS! Please bring your family and friends for an evening of FUN on Friday March 1, 2019 at Flowing Wells High School from 4:30 to 7:30pm. There will be student performances, raffles prizes, games booths, activities, and food trucks for your enjoyment! All proceeds support mini-grants for Flowing Wells teaching!
- We also hope you can join us at the Grand Re-Opening of our newly-renovated Flowing Wells Library on Saturday, February 23, 2019 from 12:30–4 pm. This family-friendly day of fun will feature many activities, including harp and ukulele performances, games, crafts, and face painting. In addition, we're thrilled to present a lecture by Kevin and Marie Daily, founders of the Flowing Wells Neighborhood Association and Community Coalition, about their book Flowing Wells (Arcadia Publishing). Copies of the book will be available for sale.
- Friendly reminder that your child may be dropped off as early as 8:25 for the morning class and 12:25 for the afternoon class

Important Dates:

2/21-2/22: No school because of the Rodeo

Fact of the Week!

Talking about things that go on in the world with your child is vital. This world isn't perfect and they should be aware of both the good and the bad. The link attached is an article about why it is important and how other children have reacted to our imperfect world.

<http://www.takepart.com/article/2015/05/12/expose-kids-to-world-problems>

Need Donations:

- Thick-weight paper plates

Note: Donations are always welcome and never required

Kindness Quote of the Week:

"Kind words can be short and easy to speak, but their echoes are truly endless." - Mother Teresa