News:

- There are still some spots open so if you haven't already and are able to please contact Ben about being a guest reader for February Love of Reading Month! You can contact him at (520)696-8911
- This week's lesson plan theme is curiosity and imagination so your child will really be exercising their minds and expanding their horizons.
- We have a half day coming up this week on Thursday the 7th. This means that the AM class will still start at 8:30, but will get out at 10:00. The PM class will be starting at 11:00 and ending at 12:30.
- Friendly reminder that your child may be dropped off as early as 8:25 for the morning class and 12:25 for the afternoon class

Important Dates:

- Half day 2/7
 - 08:30-10:00 AM Class
 - 11:00-12:30 PM Class

Fact of the Week!

Playing at a young age is such an important part of your child's development. While it doesn't seem like it, your child is learning so many valuable things. These things will help your child thrive not only in the present, but especially in the future. The attached link goes into detail about which specific developmental traits will flourish through play learning.

Need Donations:

- Old news papers
- Ping Pong balls
- Red water beads

Note: Donations are always welcome and never required

Kindness Quote of the Week:

"Kindness is more than deeds. It is an attitude, an expression, a look, a touch. It is anything that lifts another person." - Plato
