News:

- Hello parents/guardians my name is miss Jessie and I am mister Ben's student teacher from the University of Arizona. A part of my student teaching is taking over Ben's everyday tasks like writing the Teddy Bear Times newsletter. So from this point on I will not only be writing this newsletter, but I will also be taking over a new task every week that leads up to a 20 day takeover. This means that at some point I will become the lead teacher, but mister Ben and the other classroom aides will still be there to help me complete these tasks.
- If you haven't already and are able to please contact Ben about being a guest reader for February Love of Reading Month!
- Now that the students have new folders please throw the old ones away so that they don't have multiple in their backpacks.
- Friendly reminder that your child may be dropped off as early as 8:25 for the morning class and 12:25 for the afternoon class

Important Dates:

- Lockdown drill 1/31

Fact of the Week!

Your child's literacy and linguistic development plays a vital part in their learning progression. I have attached a link that will provide you with 11 ways to help enhance your child's reading skills.
