News:

- This Wednesday, October 31st is Halloween. Children may wear costumes to school if they wish. Please help us meet these guidelines: No masks, no inappropriately scary costumes, no weapons or large props, and no candy (please). A costume parade will begin at 8:40am and 12:40pm followed by a play by the front office staff. Families are welcome. Finally, if you do not wish for your child to take part in Halloween-themed activities, please let me know so I may plan an alternative experience.

Important Dates:

- Halloween—Costume Parade and “Big Pumpkin” Play 10/31 8:40am and 12:40pm
- Caring Parents Meeting 11/6 3:45pm

Fact of the Week!

“For many toddlers, crying is not a reflection of sadness—it’s a way to process any emotion. They may cry out of anger, frustration, fear, excitement, confusion, anxiety or even happiness. The trouble is, they may also lack the verbal ability and self-awareness to explain how they’re feeling. This means asking them, “What’s wrong?” will rarely yield a productive response.”

Thank You

Note: Donations are always welcome and never required.

Kindness Quote of the Week: “

“The secret of genius is to carry the spirit of the child into old age, which means never losing your enthusiasm.”

— Aldous Huxley
