This Week

This week we are focusing on sink or float! We will be testing a variety of objects to determine if they sink or float. Children will also create boats out of pool noodles and straws. Children will also engage in the sensory table that is filled with water beads.

In Miss Jessica's classroom children will read the book, Float by Daniel Miyares. Also in Miss Jessica's class children will be creating boats made from foil and popsicle sticks. Students will engage in a water sensory table.
