This Week

Happy Fall! During this short week we will be discussing the season of Fall during whole group. We will be reading the books, Leaves by David Ezra Stein and Wonderfall by Michael Hall. We will be answering questions such as "What happens to the leaves in fall?" And "what are seasons?" In small groups we will be creating fall wreaths, pumpkin slimes, and spider web art.

Thank you to Jack's Aunt for coming in and teaching us about her career as a Tucson Police Officer! As well as Max's mom teaching us about her career as a Doctor! We had so much fun!

Parent Tip:

Give structured choices to your child. If it is time to eat and your child is refusing to sit at the dinner table, try giving two choices. If you want your child to choose option A try making option B less attractive.
